

Dear Preppers...

Sadly, after so many years, it is time to close down ONAIRprep as well as the audio feature "Daily Dose of Weird News". I don't wish to do so, but due to some health issues, I just cannot keep up with the demanding time it takes to put it all together each day. It was fun while it lasted but I need to re-prioritize my life to put other things first and take care of myself and my family.

The final day of ONAIRprep will be posted this coming Saturday, June 30th, to finish out the month. The final Daily Dose of Weird News audio feature will be posted Tuesday, June 26th.

You all have paid subscriptions, so you will need to cancel your subscriptions before you they get automatically renewed through PayPal. You can cancel your subscription immediately by unsubscribing through this link: <http://ow.ly/ppcl30kF84t>. It will require you to sign in to your PayPal account and cancel your subscription so you are not charged again. Do not worry, even if you unsubscribe today you will still be able to get the prep for the remainder of this month along with the prep below via links.

While the service is closing down, I do not want any of you to be at a loss for material – especially as many of you still have time left on your subscriptions. To make up for that, I have uploaded all of the radio show prep from last year (2017) as well as everything that has been created so far this year (2018) into zip files for you to download and save to your hard drives. All of the ONAIRprep elements I use every single day are there and the only thing that would be different for each date would be the NEW news kickers which, of course, would be outdated – but the EVERGREEN news kickers could still be used for years to come. This gives you 90% of the prep which you can keep forever; just be sure to download these zip files sometime this week before the ONAIRprep portion of my website gets shut down. Here are links to the zip files...

THE TICKET: If you would like to have Marie Asner continue to provide movie reviews for your show/station, you can email her directly at filmer456@aol.com.

If you have any questions, please let me know. It has been a true privilege to server each and every one of you, and to entertain your listeners through the writing I've done over the years. Someday I may be able to come back to this, as I know I'm going to miss it. But it appears God has other plans for me at this time.

Thank you in advance for your understanding, and God bless you, your station, and your listeners.

Sincerely Yours and HIS,
DARREN MARLAR

WELCOME TO THE SHOW!

Tune in tomorrow for the beginning of the show when I'll say the very charming and witty thing I don't have prepared to say right now.

BIBLE VERSE OF THE DAY

"...Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead." --Philippians 3:13

The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; your love, O Lord, endures forever — do not abandon the works of your hands.
— Psalm 138:8

Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always. — Psalm 105:4

HEARTLIGHT DAILY VERSE, PRAYER & THOUGHT

(From VerseOfTheDay.com)

For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones. They will be protected forever... — Psalm 37:28

Thought: God is committed to his people. He loves justice, and those who pursue it. He will not forget his people, those who seek to honor him by displaying his character in their lives. God has promised that he will honor his promises to his people and preserve them with his protecting power, forever. As God has promised elsewhere, "Never will I leave you, never will I forsake you!"

Prayer: Eternal and Faithful Father, thank you for your great promises. I am thrilled at the reminder of your faithful presence in my life. I fully believe that I can entrust my future to you and that you will bring me into your presence with victory and great joy. Thank you for my sure and steadfast hope. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

1859: French acrobat Blondin (real name: Jean Francois Gravelet) crossed Niagara Falls on a tightrope as 5,000 spectators watched.

1894: Korea declared independence from China, then asked for Japanese aid. ***Well that hardly seems very "independent", now, does it?

1926: McGraw Electric Company of Minneapolis sold the world's first pop-up toasters.

1934: The NFL Portsmouth Spartans became the Detroit Lions.

1953: The first Chevrolet Corvette rolled off the assembly line in Flint, Michigan. It was the first laminated plastic car. Sticker price: $3,250.

1974: Steven Spielberg filmed the famous July 4th scene for his movie, Jaws. A crowd of 400 screaming extras in bathing suits ran from the water — again and again and again. (audio clip)

1975: Cher married Gregg Allman. The marriage lasted nine days. ***Hollywood celebrities still ask her, "What was your secret to a long marriage?"

1985: Continental Baking executive James A. Dewar died at age 88. In the early 1930s he invented Twinkies. ***Appropriately, he was labeled as "creamy filling" and buried in a long square yellow coffin.

1985: Actor Yul Brynner ended his reign as the King of Siam in "The King and I" after playing the role on and off for 34 years in over 4,500 performances. He won two Tonys and an Oscar.

1986: Calling his Playboy Bunny a symbol of the past, Hugh Hefner closed Playboy clubs in New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles.

1988: The city of Brooklyn dedicated a bus depot honoring Jackie Gleason for his "Honeymooners" character Ralph Kramden. *** We're still waiting for a sewer named after Ed Norton.

1992: Newspapers reported singer Tom Jones' new television series was rated lower than British TV's hymnfest "Songs of Praise."

1994: Twelve miles of highway in Waverly, Tennessee, became Loretta Lynn Parkway.

1994: The U.S. Figure Skating Association stripped Tonya Harding of her 1994 national title and banned her for life for the attack on competitor Nancy Kerrigan.

1995: The movie "Mighty Morphin Power Rangers" opened throughout the U.S. (audio clip)

2002: Brazil won its 5th World Cup soccer championship with a 2-0 victory over Germany.

2005: A Solomon Islands man who had lived as a hermit in a jungle cave for 40 years returned home when his fire went out. After relatives welcomed him home, 80-year-old Philip Uduota decided to stay.

2011: A Florida man was accused of tying his 74-year-old mother to a chair and forcing her to write checks. ***Later he forced Mom to do his ironing and make him a meatloaf.

TODAY IN CHRISTIAN HISTORY

1881: Presbyterian preacher and African-American abolitionist Henry Highland Garnet is appointed minister to Liberia. The former slave shocked the abolitionist community in 1843 by calling for violent rebellion. "Rather die free-men than live to be slaves," he preached.

SECRETS OF THE UNIVERSE (Answering questions that have plagued mankind for minutes!)

Are there people with mirror-image bodies?

About one person in 8,500 has a condition called situs inversus in which all the internal organs are located in mirror-image to the usual arrangement. People with situs inversus have their heart on the right and their liver on the left. The condition does not usually result in any medical problems. No one knows why some people are internally flip-flopped, but recently scientists have discovered some clues. In the earliest days of embryo development there is a critical period during which cilia (tiny beating hairs) cause a current to flow across the embryo. This current carries certain substances to one side more than the other, creating a left-right difference that becomes amplified into the left-right positions of the organs. People with situs inversus may have a genetic quirk that reverses or removes that current.

MOMENT OF DUH

Don't believe everyone who calls you on the telephone... especially if they say it's for your own safety that you start breaking things around you.

A telephone prankster posing as a sprinkler company employee caused havoc at an Arkansas Holiday Inn when he convinced an employee to set off the hotel's fire alarm, smash windows, shut down electricity, and break a sprinkler head that flooded the building lobby. Holiday Inn employee Christina Bergmann was at the front desk early that morning when a male caller "identified himself as an employee of Grennel Fire Sprinkler service." The man told Bergmann that there was a problem with the hotel's fire sprinklers and that she "needed to pull the fire alarm to reset them," Bergmann, aided by a hotel guest, would subsequently follow a series of directions from the caller that would result in about $50,000 in damages to the hotel!

THE FILES OF LAW & DISORDER

A man tries to get a driver's license – and goes to prison for kidnapping.

FILE #1: Roberto Padilla's day started with him just wanting to get his driver's license and ended with him being arrested for kidnapping. The 44-year-old Portland, Oregon, man's driver's test got off to a bad start when he shifted gears to drive and hit the curb - an automatic failure. Padilla pleaded with instructor Ruth Ramos for another chance, but she refused. So Padilla took off driving, refusing to let Ramos out. Finally, he stopped at an intersection and Ramos was able to jump out. Padilla was arrested a short time later and has been charged with second-degree kidnapping. ***MARLAR: Somewhere in between "making complete stops" and "parallel parking", I'm sure there has to be something in the Rules of the Road book about not kidnapping your instructor.

FILE #2: Sometimes we're able to succeed in spite of ourselves. Take the unidentified man who held up an Orlando bank. Surveillance video showed the bandit handing a bank teller a piece of paper before pulling a gun, which he held backwards during the holdup. During the robbery he also pointed the gun at himself before walking out of the bank, amazingly with cash. Police consider the man armed and dangerous to himself.

FILE #3: In Durango, Colorado, police had to tell liquor store owner Gabe Fidanque to give shoplifters the boot -- quite literally. Tired of losing what he says was about $1,000 worth of merchandise a month in thefts, Gabe took to telling shoplifters he caught that they had two choices: Give him one of their shoes or he'd call the police. A handful actually gave up a shoe but Durango police told him to cut it out or face charges of felony robbery. Ironically, shoplifting from his store is only a misdemeanor. Police Capt. Micki Browning said, "I would suggest that he find a different option that doesn't involve giving up property. What's the difference between him saying, 'Give me $20 and I won't call the police' or 'Give me your shoe?'" Gabe was also ordered to return the shoes to their owners--if he can find them. He reluctantly agreed but said, "That's the whole point of it. They're too humiliated to come back and ask for their shoe, and that also means they won't steal again."

STRANGE LAW: In Nebraska it is illegal for a mother to give her daughter a perm without a state license.

If you plan on protesting something, first be sure your brain isn't on drugs.

A man accused of trying to burn down a post office to protest the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan has been charged with attempted arson. A 45-year-old man was arrested in front of the post office holding a beer, a hammer and a propane torch. Police found the front door smashed and saw a garbage can and its contents on fire inside the building. An officer dragged the can outside before flames spread to the structure. Police said the man claimed he was angry about U.S. military involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan. No word on how he thought burning down a post office would help anything.

Hal Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees, immediately announced that the New York Yankees would purchase the ball club. “The Yankees organization always wanted to have a west coast presence – and now we have it,” said Hal Steinbrenner. The Los Angeles Dodgers will be known as the Los Angeles Yankees starting next season.

THE WAY TOO EARLY IN THE MORNING TO UNDERSTAND THE PUNCHLINE EVEN AFTER TWO CUPS OF COFFEE JOKE OF THE DAY

JOKE #1

There was once a young man who, in his youth, professed his desire to become a great writer. When asked to define "great" he said, "I want to write stuff that the whole world will read, stuff that people will react to on a truly emotional level, stuff that will make them scream, cry, howl in pain and anger!" So now he works for Microsoft, writing error messages.

JOKE #2

This story happened about a month ago in a little town in Alabama, and while it sounds like an Alfred Hitchcock tale, it's not.

This guy was on the side of the road hitchhiking on a very dark night in the middle of a storm. The night passed slowly and no cars went by. The storm was so strong he could hardly see a few feet ahead of him.

Suddenly he saw a car slowly looming, ghostlike, out of the gloom. It slowly crept toward him - silently - and stopped. Reflexively, the guy got into the car and closed the door, then realized that there was nobody behind the wheel.

The car slowly started moving again. The guy was terrified, too scared to think of jumping out and running. The guy saw that the car was slowly approaching a sharp curve. The guy started to pray, begging for his life; he was sure the ghost car would go off the road and he would plunge to his death, when just before the curve, a hand came from out of the darkness thru the window and turned the steering wheel, guiding the car safely around the bend.

Paralyzed with terror, the guy watched the hand reappear every time they reached a curve. Finally, the guy gathered his wits and leaped from the car and ran to the nearest town. Wet and in shock, he went into a bar and voice quavering, told everybody about his horrible, supernatural experience. A silence enveloped everybody when they realized the guy was not drunk and could very well be telling the truth.

About half an hour later two guys walked into the same bar. One said to the other, "Look Billy Bob, thar's that idjit what rode in our car when we was pushin it in the rain."

JOKE #3

Several women appeared in court, each accusing the others of causing the trouble they were having in the apartment building where they lived. The women were arguing noisily even in the court. The judge, banging his gavel to quiet them said, "We are going to do this in an orderly manner. I can't listen to all of you at once. I'll hear the oldest first." The case was dismissed for lack of testimony.

USELESS FACTS

Blind people could one day use their tongues to help them "see". Scientists have developed a device which transfers visual cues from a video camera to the brain through electrodes in the mouth. A map of the outside world is sent to a postage stamp-sized "tongue display unit" made of 144 electrodes which stimulates the highly sensitive tongue. ***So if someone sticks their tongue out at you, they may just be sight-seeing!

About one in every five men say they couldn't leave for vacation without packing a hair dryer. ***Which is a flawed study, because obviously those people aren't real men.

FEATURED FUNNIES

DIETING BUDDIES

Mary announced that she was going to start a diet to lose some pounds she had put on recently.

"Great," Sue exclaimed. "I'm ready to start a diet too. We can be dieting buddies and help each other out. And when I feel the urge to drive out and get a burger and fries, I'll call you first."

"Wonderful," Mary replied. "I'll go with you."

IT MUST BE TRUE BECAUSE I HEARD IT ON THE RADIO!

ARACHNOPHOBIA

Think of the dumbest reason to get rid of your car... I can almost guarantee you that the next story will beat it!

Granted, I don't like spiders either... I'm sure most people don't. But would you sell your car because you saw a spider in it? Michelle Holloway did just that! "I don't regret selling the car at all. I couldn't keep it after that. If the spider had come out while I was driving I would have crashed," she said. So she sold her Mazda 626 because she saw a spider in it and now she rides the bus to work. ***MARLAR: Oh yeah, I'm sure public transit is completely bug free.

DRIVE TIME DEVOTIONAL

EIGHT COWS ON THE ALTAR

READ: Genesis 22:1-12

God tested Abraham. —Genesis 22:1

Pastor Ed Dobson was speaking to a congregation on "putting all on the altar" in total surrender to Christ. After the service, an old German farmer came forward. He told Dobson that he had eight cows that were dying, which would mean great financial loss, and he had been struggling with accepting this as God's will. Then he said, "Because of your message, I have found peace. Tonight I put them all on the altar."

Christ's lordship touches every area, every relationship, every concern of our lives. If we are willing to submit to Him, any loss in life will be seen as an opportunity of giving back to God what is rightfully His and trusting Him to provide what is needed.

When God told Abraham to sacrifice Isaac, He seemed to be undermining His own purposes. Isaac was the son of promise through whom God would bless the world. Yet Abraham's faith had grown strong over the years, and baffled though he must have been, he said, "God will provide for Himself the lamb" (Genesis 22:8).

The issue is the same for us. Can we entrust everything to God—our possessions, job, health, family? If we commit ourselves to Him each day and thank Him for every blessing, our confidence in Him will survive any test. —Dennis J. De Haan

*You have longed for sweet peace and for faith to increase,
And have earnestly, fervently prayed;
But you cannot have rest or be perfectly blest
Until all on the altar is laid. —Hoffman*

Submission to God means taking our hands off what belongs to Him.

LEFTOVERS

DEADLIER THAN GUNS?

Lots of people are saying that guns are dangerous and should be banned... but there is something that every single one of us uses that's 9,000 times more dangerous than guns and kills more people than guns ever could!

Bad news folks. You know how everyone is saying that guns should be banned because they're so dangerous? Well, I've learned about another product that's NINE THOUSAND TIMES more dangerous than guns! And, sadly, every single American uses this product at least once in their lifetime! I can almost guarantee you've used this product at least once... and children are especially vulnerable because they use this product more often than the average adult! Want to know what this product is? Are you sitting down? It's health care administered by a doctor! That's right... doctors are more deadly than guns! Don't believe me? Keep listening...

We have 700,000 doctors in the United States. All total, doctors cause 120,000 accidental deaths per year. That equals 0.171 deaths per doctor.

As for guns, there are 80-million gun owners in the United States. There are a total 1,500 deaths caused by guns (and that's for all age groups). That comes to 0.0000188 deaths per gun owner.

***MARLAR: Statistically, doctors are about 9,000 times more likely to kill you than are gun owners. Maybe we should ban doctors... and politicians who want to give us free health care.

(Numeric Figures from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.)

WATER COOLER TALK

Looking to get ahead at work? Spend more time at the water cooler...

... drinking water, not talking! According to research conducted by the Innowave water company, 38% of folks claim they feel more productive after drinking water on the job. Plus, they say it will help you digest food better, which makes workers feel less groggy after lunch. ***MARLAR: Then again, this is research from a water company – so you might want to take it with a grain of salt. Which, now that I think about it, will make you thirsty for more water.

JUST FOR FUN

SWEET!

Two things that mankind (and mostly womankind) have been looking for are: ways to look younger; and acquisition of chocolate. Now it looks like you can combine the two!

Confectioner Adolf Andersen of Hamburg, Germany, teamed up with an anti-aging clinic to develop the first line of anti-aging chocolates. He says Felice pralines are made with dark chocolate, mango and soya milk, all filled with antioxidants and other ingredients that reportedly protect against free radicals, boost metabolism and tighten skin. A tester for the company said that two chocolates with a cup of tea at the end of the day make you immediately feel 15 years younger. ***MARLAR: But the sugar and caffeine will keep you awake all night making you look like death warmed over at work the next morning.

4. You realize that asphalt has a liquid state.
3. You break into a sweat the instant you step outside at 7:30 a.m.
2. The potatoes cook underground, so all you have to do is pull one out and add butter, salt and pepper.
1. Your biggest bicycle wreck fear is, "What if I get knocked out and end up lying on the pavement and cook to death?"

MORE SHOW PREP STUFF...

Want to live longer? Stop bathing!

A new study out of Stockholm University reveals that people who want to live longer may want to re-think how often they bathe. The study shows that warm bath water strips the body of essential germ-fighting oils, and that shortens life expectancy. Researchers say when you bathe for social reasons, take quick showers in cool water.

***MARLAR: Well, if there's a teenage in your house, cold water is usually all that's left.

AND I LEAVE YOU WITH THIS THOUGHT

This important traffic bulletin. If you're driving on (Pleasant Street), please avoid the road at the intersection of (Pleasant and Public Ave). There's nothing wrong out there, but I'll be going home in a few minutes and I'd sort of like the road to myself.

JUNE 29, 2018...

Uncle Drew---Kyrie Irving, of NBA sport fame, dives into acting as Uncle Drew. In the film, Drew is a legend of the sport of streetball. He wants to bring the old team back for a special game. Can he do it? This may turn out to be a different kind of ball game as there is an opposing team led by Nick Kroll. Also, in the cast are Shaquille O'Neil, Chris Weber, Mike Epps and Lisa Leslie. "Uncle Drew" is rated PG 13. No rating.

Woman Walks Ahead---Jessica Chastain takes on the role of a real-life portrait painter of the 1890's, Caroline Weldon. From Brooklyn, she was famous for her paintings and decides to take on one special subject, Chief Sitting Bull of the Lakota (Michael Greyeyes). Will he do it? A painting by a woman? Where to find him? What about security? We do know that this is a famous painting of historical significance. Sam Rockwell plays the Colonel. "Woman Walks Ahead" is rated PG 13. Rating of 2 for fans.

Leave No Trace---In this film, directed by Debra Granik, a father and daughter, have lived in the wilderness by themselves---no civilization, thank you. Things are going well, until "civilization" comes into their territory. What to do? The film is based on the book "My Abandonment" by Peter Rock. This film stars Ben Foster and Thomasin Harcourt McKenzie. "Leave No Trace" is rated PG 13. No rating.

Sicario: Day Of The Soldado---The first film, "Sicario", was one of my favorite films of 2015. The reality of the illegal drug trade crossing borders gets to you in opening scenes of that film. Photography (Roger Deakins), acting, directing (Dennis Villeneuve) and that special soundtrack (from the late Johann Johannsson) brought the level of filming way up. Now, this story centers on Alejandro, the Benicio Del Toro character. “Sicario” means “hitman.” Since the end of the last film, he has helped to slow down drug traffic across the U.S.-Mexico border. Now, he has a young girl hostage, who is related to the drug cartel. This is leverage if the plan can work. Not only do they have to stay hidden, but who is out there to help them from the cartel? There is a history between the hostage and gun man, too. The southwest and arid countryside have their place in the film. The cast includes Josh Brolin, Jeffrey Donovan and Isabela Moner. Director is Stefano Sollima. “Sicario: Day Of The Soldado” is rated R. for violence. Rating of 3 for fans.

JULY 4-6, 2018...

Ant-Man And The Wasp brings together more super-heroes from Marvel Comics. Stars Paul Rudd and Evangeline Lilly.

The First Purge goes back in time to how the “Purge’s” came to be. Stars Scott Davis.

The Legacy Of A Whitetail Deer Hunter is a comedy starring Josh Brolin and Danny McBride on a weekend hunting trip.

Sorry To Bother You goes behind the scenes of telemarketing. Stars Lakeith Stanfield.
